

KAKCHING KHUNOU COLLEGE,
KAKCHING KHUNOU, UMATHEL,
KAKCHING DISTRICT,
MANIPUR - 795103

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY

PROGRAM OUTCOME(P.O)

B.A. SOCIOLOGY

After successful completion of three years degree program in sociology, students are able to:

1. Understand the importance of the emergence of the discipline as the youngest of all social sciences which is required by every society since other social sciences do not cover like it does.
2. Use their knowledge to solve institutional problems , bring forth Convergence and integration for maintaining the social enhancement.
3. Learn a vast knowledge concerning different disciplines and make applicable to a variety of employment to different sectors of society e.g. health, home, education, social welfare and so many others.
4. Earn the knowledge of conducting social researches by applying different research methods for further use of society.
5. Apply their knowledge related to Politics, Population, Gender marginal groups, social pathology to maintain social stability.

COURSE OUTCOME(C.O)

SEMESTER-I

Subject code: 101

Subject name: 1.Introduction to sociology

After the completion of this course, students are able to:

1. Understand the nature and scope of the discipline.
2. Earn the knowledge of Basic Concepts and institutions.
3. Have the ideas of the social processes and its importance in society.
4. Grasp the importance of social institutions and its advantages and disadvantages to apply to social life.
5. Earn the knowledge required for men to live in society and its relation with others.

SEMESTER-II

Subject code: 201

Subject name: 2. Sociology of india

After the completion of this course, students are able to:

1. Earn the knowledge of basic institution of Indian society.
2. Understand the social problems in India and its means to solve.
3. Apply the knowledge of convergence and integration to society.

SEMESTER-III

Subject code: 301

Subject name: 3.Sociological thought

After the completion of this course, students are able to:

1. Learn Auguste Comte's development and progression of society through mentally conceived stages and his main aim of the classification of science as to prepare the background and basis for the study of society, sociology as a science invented by him.
2. Analyse Herbert Spencer's understanding of society by comparing with an organism and his thinking of society like a biological system, a greater organism, alike in its structure and its functions, its evolution, special types and the application of survival of fittest to human societies.
3. Understand Karl Marx's structure of society which consists of two parts: the base and superstructure, the base comprises the forces and relations of production, Historical Materialism: all objects whether living or inanimate are subject to continuous change and new developments of productive forces of society came into conflict with existing relations of production.
4. Learn Emile Durkheim's discipline of sociology should be understood as the empirical study of social facts(values, cultural norms and social structure) and his division of labour in an advanced, industrial, capitalist society as people that are allocated in society according to merit and rewarded accordingly and his analysis of religion as a social phenomenon.
5. Digest Marx's opinion on conflict in society as the primary means of change and economically, his views about conflict existing between the owners of the means of production, the bourgeoisie and the laborers called proleteriats.

SEMESTER-IV

Subject code: 401

Subject name: 4.Indian Sociological Tradition

After the completion of this course, students are able to;

1. Have the ideas of Development of Sociological Thought in India.
2. Understand the important contributions on Indian Social Thought and its usage to study Indian society.
3. Earn the Knowledge of Indological perspective and its changes from ancient times to post independence.
4. Expose the Structural-Functional perspective of Indian Society.
5. Understand the Marxist Perspective.

SEMESTER-V

Subject code: 501

Subject name: 5. Sociological Research Method

After the completion of this course, students are able to:

1. Understand the importance of the meaning, scope and significance of social research and its usages.
2. Grasp the knowledge of conceptualisation and formulation of hypothesis.
3. Learn the types of research and they can choose suitable one for a specific research.
4. Use techniques of data collection to conduct experiments.
5. Present and interpret of data in social research.

SEMESTER-V

Subject code: 502

Subject name: 6.Political Sociology

After the completion of this course, students are able to:

1. Digest the nature and scope of political sociology and its utility.
2. Share the ideas of political parties and their participation.
3. Know the Political elites and their functions in the political system.
4. Expose the political culture, political socialisation and political Participation.
5. Earn the aspects of state ,society and politics in India.

SEMESTER-V

Subject code: 503

Subject name: 7. Social Demography

After the completion of this course, students are able to:

1. Understand the interface between population and society.
2. Have the Ideas of Demographic Theories.
3. Earn the knowledge of population Structure of society.
4. Share the usage of Demographic processes.
5. Learn the Population Policy of India.

SEMESTER-VI

Subject code: 601

Subject name: 8. Sociology of Gender

After the completion of this course, students are able to:

1. Understand the gender studies related to women's liberation to gender from historical view.
2. Grasp the ideas concerning gender as a social construct.
3. Learn the gender differences and irregularities in society.
4. Earn the knowledge related to gender, power and resistance in social system.
5. Know the gender constructs in North-East India, its problem and prospects.

SEMESTER-VI

Subject code: 602

Subject name: 9. Sociology of Marginal Groups

After the completion of this course, students are able to:

1. Realize the marginal people and their status in society.
2. Learn the social exclusion through social stratification including, scheduled castes, Tribes/Adivasis, Untouchables /Dalits and its measures to be taken for minimising the problems.
3. Get insight into the problems faced by women and girls, differently abled people and role of family and legislative measures.
4. Perceive the discrimination of the HIV related victims, role of family and NGO's and its measures to cope with the problem.

SEMESTER-VI

Subject code: 603

Subject name: 10. Social Pathology

After the completion of this course, students are able to:

1. Aware the social problems, its types and means to solve the problems to bring forth a betterment in society.
2. Understand Communalism, Secularism and Regionalism, causes and effects and measures to apply.
3. Learn about child labour and child abuse and its causes and effects.
4. Have the knowledge of Drug abuse and Addiction, its impact, measures to combat drug trafficking and role of family to prevent drug abuse.
5. Grasp the ideas of youth unrest and agitations, movement courses, know how to control agitations.